BOI BELLA

BUSTY BROWN

Grew up out west running with wolves, lassoing horses, and cookin' pork n' beans over open fires. As she got older, she discovered the sheer joy in ripping down the fences holding in the wild mustang herds imprisoned by the government. After awhile she got lonely and decided to hop trains eastward. Busty got pulled off a train down in the yards by the Mississippi. Watch for her around town, She often sports a cowgrrrl hat and a snarl, but keep an eye on your valuables, she's got shifty fingers and is a bit of a charmer.

DIRTY G

Directly from the garden to your mouth, Dirty G spent her days diggin in the dirt but found the city of St. Louis, even though it fulfilled her need to be dirty with the BenchPress Burlesque, lacked the true filth she lusted after. So she moved out to the cunt-ry to fully embrace her dirty decomposting desires. You can always find her filthy booty knee deep in the carrot fields or dancin' a jig with a fresh bottle of homebrew.

DOLLFACE

Alleged with the murder of 4 of her ex-husbands, dollface, aka sweet cheeks, (aka) crazy eyez has been on the lam for several years. When she is not comforting sick children she's hanging out in strip clubs, digging graves, and robbing banks. If you have any info on her whereabouts please contact your local fire department so they can put her out.
